MOTOWN MUSEUM TOURS

The home of Motown Records, which opened in this blue-trimmed 2-story house in 1959, began with founder Berry Gordy's vision to give African-American singers a platform on a bigger stage. He started the company with an $800 family loan and went on to launch the careers of the Four Tops, Marvin Gaye, the Temptations, Stevie Wonder, the Jackson 5, and many more. Learn More...

DETROIT WALKING TOUR INCLUDING PEOPLE MOVER RIDES

Gain an understanding of the 'real' Detroit during this 2-hour walking tour of the city. Ride the 'People Mover' (Detroit's elevated train) to Lafayette Coney Island, among the sculptures of Civic Center, and through Greektown. This small group tour is limited to 12 people or fewer to ensure personalized attention from your guide. Train fare and snacks included. Learn More...

LE CULTURE CAFE

Le Culture Café is a laidback, casual restaurant with upscale food. Owners Drew Matthews and Dennis Irving partnered together to open the location right in the heart of Detroit's black bottom. Le Culture offers a sense of comfortability with a small yet diverse menu of delicious, savory, foods. Learn More...

THE HENRY FORD TOURS

Detroit's Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation—part of the Henry Ford, the largest indoor and outdoor museum complex in the US—traces the Industrial Revolution and rise of the automobile in history. Notable artifacts include the chair where Abraham Lincoln sat when he was shot and the bus where Rosa Parks refused to yield her seat. Learn More...

ANTIQUÉ CAR TOUR OF HISTORIC BELLE ISLE

This is a one of a kind tour of historic Belle Isle park in an antique automobile -- a Ford Model A from 1930. Belle Isle has been a park since 1880. The views are fantastic, the history is rich, and the architecture is amazing. Come see why Belle Isle has been the gem of Detroit for the last 140 years. We ride with the top down when weather permits. Learn More...

ARETHA AMPHITHEATRE

Aretha Franklin Amphitheatre is the most exciting concert space in the heart of downtown Detroit. This unique waterfront venue is the epicenter of live entertainment in the summer for metropolitan Detroit. The crowds that fill the 5,000 seats and 1,000 lawn spaces atop the hill are diverse and incredibly loyal. They've helped Aretha Franklin Amphitheatre become one of the top 100 concert venues in the world. Learn More...*
