MOTOWN MUSEUM TOURS

The home of Motown Records, which opened in this blue-trimmed 2-story house in 1959, began with founder Berry Gordy's vision to give African-American singers a platform on a bigger stage. He started the company with an $800 family loan and went on to launch the careers of the Four Tops, Marvin Gaye, the Temptations, Stevie Wonder, the Jackson 5, and many more. Learn More...
